Euromoney – 2018 Awards

We are pleased to announce that Broadgate Advisers has been awarded the Best Investment Bank in Lebanon, at the Euromoney Awards for Excellence 2018.

Bankers from across the Middle East gathered to attend the Euromoney Middle East Awards for Excellence dinner at Grosvenor House Hotel in Dubai on Tuesday, May 8th. The awards recognized banks that stood out during a period of changing economic conditions, while activity in the capital markets remained strong. Winners in other investment banking categories include Citi, HSBC, Moelis & Co., and winners in commercial banking categories including Standard Chartered, Emirates NBD and Blom Bank, among others.

Broadgate Advisers was indeed recognized for its notable M&A deal track record but also for reinforcing its position as a full-fledged investment boutique with an established Multi-Family Office service offering as well as a reputable Venture Capital business.

Rami Jisr, Managing Partner at Broadgate said on the occasion: “We are extremely proud, yet again this year to win a prestigious award, we are truly honored. Our determination at Broadgate to provide our clients with world class services is our first priority. I thank the team for their hard work and above all our clients for entrusting us with their most strategic affairs”.

About the Awards for Excellence

The Euromoney Awards for Excellence, launched in 1992, were the first of their kind in the global financial publishing industry. Euromoney’s award decisions are made by a committee of senior journalists, chaired by Euromoney’s editor, following the receipt of detailed submissions from market participants and extensive year-round research into the banking and capital markets in the region by our editors, journalists and research team. Euromoney’s Awards for Excellence cover more than 20 global product categories, best-in-class awards in all regions and the best banks in close to 100 countries around the world.
